

Notification of the Launch of the English-Language Version of the AIDA Press Information Center

We are pleased to announce the launch of the English-language version of the 'AIDA Press Information Center,' a part of our corporate website dedicated to providing helpful information to our customers.

We will continue to post helpful information about presses and press metalforming on this site as it becomes available. Likewise, we will continue to enhance this website to enable press users to leverage its information in their everyday work, so we hope you will take the time to visit it. In addition, if there are other topics you would like to see covered, please submit your requests on the 'Contact Us' page.
